

A brief guide to Restorative Practice

Restorative practice is a way of working with conflict that puts the focus on repairing the harm that has been done. It is an approach to conflict resolution that includes all of the parties involved.

Restorative practices strengthen students' connections to both staff and other students, and that's why restorative practices support both prevention and response.

Focusing on positive connections and support contributes to a positive school climate.

